

I Got This Golf Camp & Tournament

Capper Open Scramble

This “NEW to Topeka” week-long adaptive golf camp introduces individuals 13 years and older who have intellectual and/or development disabilities to the game of golf at the Topeka Country Club week of August 4-8. Golfers will, through this camp, benefit by learning a game they can enjoy forever, gain social skills, and support growth both physically and mentally. An 18-team, four-person scramble tournament on Friday will celebrate a week of building abilities with hosts Amy Bockerstette (founder of I GOT THIS Golf) and hopefully Gary Woodland (Amy’s PGA sidekick) for a meet and greet with tournament golfers.

The goal of this benefit golf camp and tournament is to raise funds for Capper’s Children’s Ability Fund, providing financial insurance relief for families served at Capper while creating the love of golf for our friends with special needs.

Amy Bockerstette and Gary Woodland play the 16th hole together before the 2019 Phoenix Open. This event went viral on social media and brought national attention to the athletic abilities of individuals with disabilities.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO PARTNERING WITH YOU

“As a father of a son with disabilities I have seen firsthand the dedication, the acumen, and the joy that Capper Foundation brings to so many in our community. I am passionate about helping those who we serve, and I am equally passionate about working with those in the community that see our mission as an important role in building abilities. I look forward to working with you and building a strong relationship that can expand Capper Foundation’s reach to those in our community that otherwise wouldn’t get the care they desperately need.”
